

Judicial Council has approved these standards of conduct for judicial case managers.

Standards of conduct

Judicial Case Managers are an extension of the Provincial judiciary, and shall:

1. be bound by the Code of Ethics of the Justices of the Peace of the Province of British Columbia;
2. not show favouritism or prejudice towards anyone;
3. be forthright, honest, courteous, and cooperative;
4. respect confidentiality;
5. not pre-judge the accused nor encroach on his/her rights;
6. ensure that due process of law be as expeditious as possible;
7. endeavour to schedule trials to minimize inconvenience to all parties;
8. dress in accordance with accepted court practice;
9. understand and adhere to the limitations of the office; and
10. conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times.
