

THE PROVINCIAL COURT
OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Effective Date: 13 December 2023

FAM 10

PRACTICE DIRECTION

ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES ON FAMILY FORMS AND ORDERS AND FILING OF FAMILY ORDERS

Purpose

The purpose of this Practice Direction is to clarify: (1) the use of electronic signatures on forms* and orders made under the Family Law Act, S.B.C. 2011, c. 25 (FLA), Child, Family and Community Service Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 46 (CFCSA), Family Maintenance Enforcement Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 127 (FMEA), Interjurisdictional Support Orders Act, S.B.C. 2002, c. 29, and Adult Guardianship Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 6. (collectively “Family Form or Order”); and (2) the method by which counsel must file Family Orders.

* For the purpose of this Practice Direction, “form” means a court form where a signature is required, but does not include a Financial Statement or an Affidavit.

Application

This practice direction applies to all court registries in the Province.

Directions

1. A party or counsel may use an electronic signature (in lieu of handwritten signature) to sign a Family Form or Order. An electronic signature includes a digital image of a handwritten signature or a signature drawn in digital ink (by using, for example, a stylus, mouse, or trackpad), but does not include a typewritten name or typewritten certificate-based digital signature.
2. If a party or counsel uses an electronic signature to sign a Family Form or Order, they should only file the electronically signed version of a Family Form or Order at the applicable court registry. They should not additionally file a copy of a Family Form or Order with their handwritten signature.

3. In order to facilitate the more timely processing of Family Orders, where counsel is required to file a Family Order, they must do so by email to the applicable court registry as follows:

- a. The Family Order must:

- i. be in PDF format¹;
- ii. not be password protected or encrypted;
- iii. follow the naming convention set out below; and
- iv. be individually submitted by a separate email (i.e., one Family Order per PDF file per email).

- b. The subject line for emails to the applicable court registry attaching a PDF Family Order for filing must also follow the naming convention set out below.
